Catholic Campaign for Human Development 2015 Multimedia Youth Contest

Participate—it's easy !

- Learn about Poverty in the U.S. and CCHD's response
- Learn about the Two Feet of Love in Action
- Reflect and Share learning
- Create multimedia work
- Teach others
- Submit your work to the contest

Learn about Poverty in the U.S. and CCHD's Response

- Visit Poverty USA and watch the Poverty Tour on the website (4:05 minutes)
- Go to the Poverty Map (County Level View). Find your county's statistics for poverty. Learn about a group helping to address poverty in your area.
- On the Poverty USA website under Audio and Video:
  - Watch the video "Meet Mary" (3:03 minutes)
  - Watch the video "Living our Faith, Breaking the Cycle of Poverty" (6:54 minutes)

Learn about the Two Feet of Love in Action

Use the sources below to learn about two distinct but complementary ways to put love in action.

- 1) View the Two Feet of Love in Action brochure. Identify the difference between the two feet of love in action: Social Justice and Charitable Works.
- 2) Watch the video 3 Minutes with Ellen McCloskey and Jill Rauh as they talk about the 2 Feet of Love in Action.

Reflect and Share

“Do Justice, Love Goodness,
Walk Humbly with God” (Micah 6:8)

Reflect and answer the following essay questions. The typed answers will be submitted with your entry form and will be considered in the national judging process. (Each question should be about four sentences.)

1. What is the poverty rate in your state? In your county? Does this surprise you?
2. What are the ways that you show love and walk humbly in your life with God?
3. How does CCHD show their work for justice? Why does CCHD believe it is important for local groups or communities to be involved in the issues affecting the daily lives of people living in poverty?
4. What is a good example of a charitable organization in your county or state? What do they do/ How are they providing charity in your community?
5. What is a good example of a social justice organization in your county or state? What do they do to provide social justice to the people they serve?

Create Your Multimedia Work

2015 Contest Theme

*“Do Justice, Love Goodness,
Walk Humbly with God”* (Micah 6:8)

Multimedia work in any form is eligible for the contest! Create videos, photos, PowerPoint presentations, paintings, drawings, dramas, poems, stories, and songs. Be sure to use your essays to inform your creativity!

Before creating your work, visit www.usccb.org/youthcontest to make sure you follow all the rules so your entry isn't disqualified.

NOTE: Entries featuring any copyrighted materials (music, photos, videos, etc.), MUST have all accompanying permission forms attached to the entry form in order to be considered for judging.

Entries featuring any people outside of the contestants must also have accompanying permission documents to feature people.

Share with Others

Take your learnings about poverty, social justice and how Jesus calls us to discipleship and share with others!

Here are some ideas:

- If you created a video or song, post it on YouTube.
- Ask permission to display your work at your parish or school.
- Ask to present your work at the beginning of a parish meeting.
- Contact a local coffee shop to display your work.

On the Entry Form, you will need to be able to account for where you shared your work.

Submit work to the contest

You are ready to submit your work!

First, fill out the official entry form on the following pages.

Second, if you are participating in the contest as an individual and not through your parish or school, get in touch with your diocesan contact for the contest to find out about the local submission process. This may be the diocesan CCHD representative or the diocesan coordinator for religious education, youth ministry, or Catholic education.

Clare Hagan (right, with sister, Elyse), winner of the 2009 Multimedia Youth Contest, plays her winning song, "Complacency's End," for a crowd of 22,000 youth at the National Catholic Youth Conference.

If you learn that your diocese is not participating in the contest, you can still submit your entry. Contact Genevieve Mougey at the CCHD national office at gmougey@usccb.org. Be sure to include any details of communication you have already had with the diocese regarding the contest.
